Dear Sir:

This is to confirm our phone conversation of December 29 with regard to Campaign Disclosure Form 490 for a Riverside County Supervisor.

It is my understanding from our discussion that if a contribution is received in the mail from a Company or Corporation the name of that Company or Corporation is listed as the Contributor no matter who attends the Fund Raiser or who signs the check.

Also if several businesses with different names are under the control of the same person or persons, the total amount contributed by all must be accumulated in one figure for the year.

Thank you for your assistance and I do hope that I have interpreted your answers correctly.

Yours very truly,
